On 3/17/64 HD got began to organize a train Cuban refugee camp to be there Castro. This, of course, was May. But when almost a year later, with all the other things of the same general character that it happened, on 1/3/64, with Cuba a former ally, in S.A. hands, "because of Castro's [illegible] demand that the staff of the Havana Emb. be reduced to 2 dozen people in US this." What kept to have done to please HD (JFK), put his head on the U.S. block? Not to mention Rusk is careful not to give the (forced?) sign of the U.S. Emb. a very understanding of the number of various kinds of agents it may have included.

Besides what their own intelligence told them about planned invasion, it was all public anyway, having been in papers in LA, NY, Wash & TO
